DESCRIPTION

With an area of approximately 400,000 square meters, surrounded by turquoise waters and unique natural beauty, you'll find a truly private paradise here - the perfect place for discerning customers seeking absolute privacy and luxury in one of Europe's most idyllic and privileged locations.

A spacious villa in the typical Ibizan style with ample living and dining areas and various terraces in all directions offers you all the comforts. The villa in the center of the island was completely renovated to the highest international standards in 2008/2009 and is designed in a modern and refined style.
